Heaven & Hell, conscious or asleep?

Do a few dead experience reward instantly upon their death thereafter for ever, and the rest suffer conscience tortures until the stars burn out and beyond?

Or

is it more complicated than that? There is certainly a punishment after death? So how could that work?

If we can't answer that question, then we can't teach that answer.

Which is true?

Do men remain conscience after death, some to wait thousands of years, while others only short time, talking among themselves, playing checkers? Or perhaps thousands of years to study under Moses, or Samuel while other only a year or two? Waiting until the resurrection when they find their reward or punishment which is everlasting life or to live conscience of the pain of torture until past the stars burn out?

I set no limitations on God. He could inflict conscienceness of pain for billions of years on a living soul and do so righteously. I have no argument with that. But is that what He describes in the written record He left for us?

Or do men die to sleep until the resurrection? Whereas does mankind suffer literal hell on earth, ( fire and brimstone) but at the resurrection those chosen by God are raised to everlasting life and it is they who then ask God to raise others, some to long lived reward and others to punishment, but all of whom die the second death which is eternal destruction of both body and soul? as stated in Psalm 149:9 "To execute upon them the judgment written: this honour have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD."

Are these all the scriptures that inform the subject? Or do you know of other scriptures?

Did I miss any scriptures?

Did I get 'em all? there are 139 scriptures listed here.

These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep. 12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well. 13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

I think "sleep" is nailed shut. The proper Biblical term for death of the body of a saint is "to sleep." Especially Daniel 12:2,13. "Gathered to thy fathers" is to "rest" and "sleep" where ones "eyes see no evil." "nor light." nor "have a voice." If God does not raise one from the sleep, one sees not even the morning. Job 7:21 and Job 14:12 " So man lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep."

These are the written record which God, our Heavenly Father, left for us to understand the world. This is a consistent theme throughout the Old and New testament.

So with that nailed down, how do we explain these scriptures? Is there any way to explain them? Do the scriptures contradict themselves?

Luke 16:19

¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day: 20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores. 22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried; 23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. 24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. 25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. 26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. 27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: 28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. 29 Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. 30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. 31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

Revelation 6:9

¶ And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held: 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth

Genesis 4:9

¶ And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother And he said, I know not: Am I my brother's keeper 10 And he said, What hast thou done the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground.

Luke 23:42

And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. 43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

1 Samuel 28:11

Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee And he said, Bring me up Samuel. 12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me for thou art Saul. 13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what sawest thou And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth. 14 And he said unto her, What form is he of And she said, An old man cometh up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself. 15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams: therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

Jonah 2:2

And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

What ever explanation one has for this seeming contradiction? it must make common sense of all of thses. If not, then we don't have sufficient understanding of the subject to teach it.

There is an easy way to explain this. It is not new, nor something to which I arrived myself. It is given in the second book of Ezra as recorded in the Apocrypha. Simply restated, it says that no matter if an Israelite dies thousands of years before the resurrection or a month before, the time seems to him to be seven days. For what seems to him to be seven days, he is conscious and aware. This perfectly explains the thief on the cross, Samuel, Lazarus' rich man, the souls under the alter, Jonah crying from the fish and righteous Abel. The rest of the time, they sleep. The text goes on to explain that the sleeping saints are guarded by an angel assigned to him alone in his own bedroom, prepared especially for him. All others sleep in a common area awaiting the second resurrection of judgement or temporal reward according to their works until the second death at which time they "cease for ever" Psalm 49:8 "For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever: . . . None of them can by any means redeem. . . "

I set no limitations on God. He could inflict conscienceless of pain for billions of years on a living soul and do so righteously.

Punishment after death does not require someone to consciously feel torture until the stars burn out and beyond. If that were true then Moses would be broken as explained by Luke 12:48 "But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes." For if two people who deserve different punishments both receive a punishment of infinite duration, one of lower temperature than the other, after an infinity of time, both have received the same. An infinite number of 10 stripe whippings is the same number as an infinite number of 20 stripe whippings which is the same number as an infinite number of 40 stripe whippings.

But what of punishment after death? Punishment after death is certain.

2 Timothy 4:1

"I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;"

Hebrews 4:12

"For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart." and 1 Peter 4:5 "Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead."

But what when the punishment is executed?

Destroy soul and body

Job 4:20

They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.

Job 6:18

The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.

Job 20:7

Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

Job 34:15

All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

Psalm 102:26

They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: 27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end. 28 The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

Psalm 49:10

For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others. 11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names. 12 Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish. 13 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah. 14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling. 15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah. 16 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased; 17 For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him. 18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself. 19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light. 20 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 73:27

For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

Matthew 10:28

And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

What does the word "destroy" mean?

Hebrews 1:11 "They shall perish; (same Greek word) but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;"

2Co 4:9 "Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed ( same Greek word)"

1Co 15:18 "Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished. ( same Greek word)"

1Co 10:10 "Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed (same Greek word) of the destroyer."

Jhn 18:14 "Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die (same Greek word) for the people."

Jhn 12:25 "He that loveth his life shall lose (same Greek word) it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal."

Jhn 10:28 "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall ( same Greek word) never perish, G622 neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand."

Jhn 6:12 "When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. ( same Greek word)"

Jhn 6:27 "Labour not for the meat which perisheth, ( same Greek word) but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed."

Luk 20:16 "He shall come and destroy ( same Greek word) these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid."

Luk 21:18 "But there shall not an hair of your head perish. ( same Greek word)"

Here is a list of scriptures using that same Greek word with a different suffix changing its meaning from a verb to a noun. Like "bake" a cake becomes, a verb to, "baked goods" a noun.

Mat 7:13 "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, ( same Greek word) and many there be which go in thereat:"

Mar 14:4 "And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste ( same Greek word) of the ointment made?"

Jhn 17:12 "While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; ( same Greek word) that the scripture might be fulfilled."

Act 8:20 "But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish ( same Greek word) with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money."

Act 25:16 "To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, ( same Greek word) before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him."

Rom 9:22 "What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: ( same Greek word) "

2Th 2:3 "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; ( same Greek word) "

1Ti 6:9 "But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. ( same Greek word) "
Heb 10:39 "But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; ( same Greek word) but of them that believe to the saving of the soul."
2Pe 2:2 "And many shall follow their pernicious ways; ( same Greek word) by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of."
2Pe 3:7 "But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition ( same Greek word) of ungodly men."
Rev 17:11 "And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition. ( same Greek word) "

Strong's gives the meaning as "utter and complete destruction, a perishing, ruin, destruction"

There are more scriptures that use this word, but that is what the word means.

Everlasting judgement

Psalm 102:26

They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

Isaiah 51:6

Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

Hebrews 1:11

They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

Matthew 18:8

Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

Matthew 19:29

And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

Matthew 25:41

Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

Matthew 25:46

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

John 3:36

He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

Hebrews 1:11

They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

Isaiah 50:9

Behold, the Lord GOD will help me; who is he that shall condemn me lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

Are these saying that moths shall eat their flesh for all time and beyond? Or is this simple, straight forward, idiomatic of the corruption or destruction of death? Like "fired" means terminate ones employment?

Matthew 3:12

Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

Luke 3:17

Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

Is "unquenchable fire" that burns until the stars burn our and beyond? Or is "unquenchable fire" fire that can not be quenched by that which it destroys?

Revelation 14:11

And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

This is a quote from Isaiah. 34:10 read the context for the place from where the smoke ascends for ever and ever day and night.

Isaiah 34:8

¶ For it is the day of the LORD'S vengeance, and the year of recompences for the controversy of Zion. 9 And the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch. 10 It shall not be quenched night nor day; the smoke thereof shall go up for ever: from generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever. 11 But the cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness. 12 They shall call the nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all her princes shall be nothing. 13 And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof: and it shall be an habitation of dragons, and a court for owls. 14 The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wild beasts of the island, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; the screech owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest. 15 There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow: there shall the vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate.

The cormorant and bittern, the owl and raven dwell in it after the smoke ends. Those that once lived there "shall be nothing;" "there is no remembrance;" they "shall all be forgotten."

Job 18:17

His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.

Psalms 6:5

For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks ?

Ecclesiastes 1:11

There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

Ecclesiastes 2:16

For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man as the fool.

Scripturally, that is what "unquenchable fire mean."

Not universal reconciliation. The opposite of it. A few enjoy everlasting life, while the others cease for ever, some after punishment which occurs in the "second resurrection."

Isaiah 51:6

Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

What is the final, final disposition of those who do not live forever?

Isaiah 26:14

They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

Jeremiah 23:40

And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

Are these a contradiction?

Psalms 146:4

His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

Even their thoughts perish. They have no consciences.

Others scriptures.

2 Corinthians 2:15

For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish: 16 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things

Habakkuk 1:12
